

Canadian vs Indian University Education System: My Thoughts

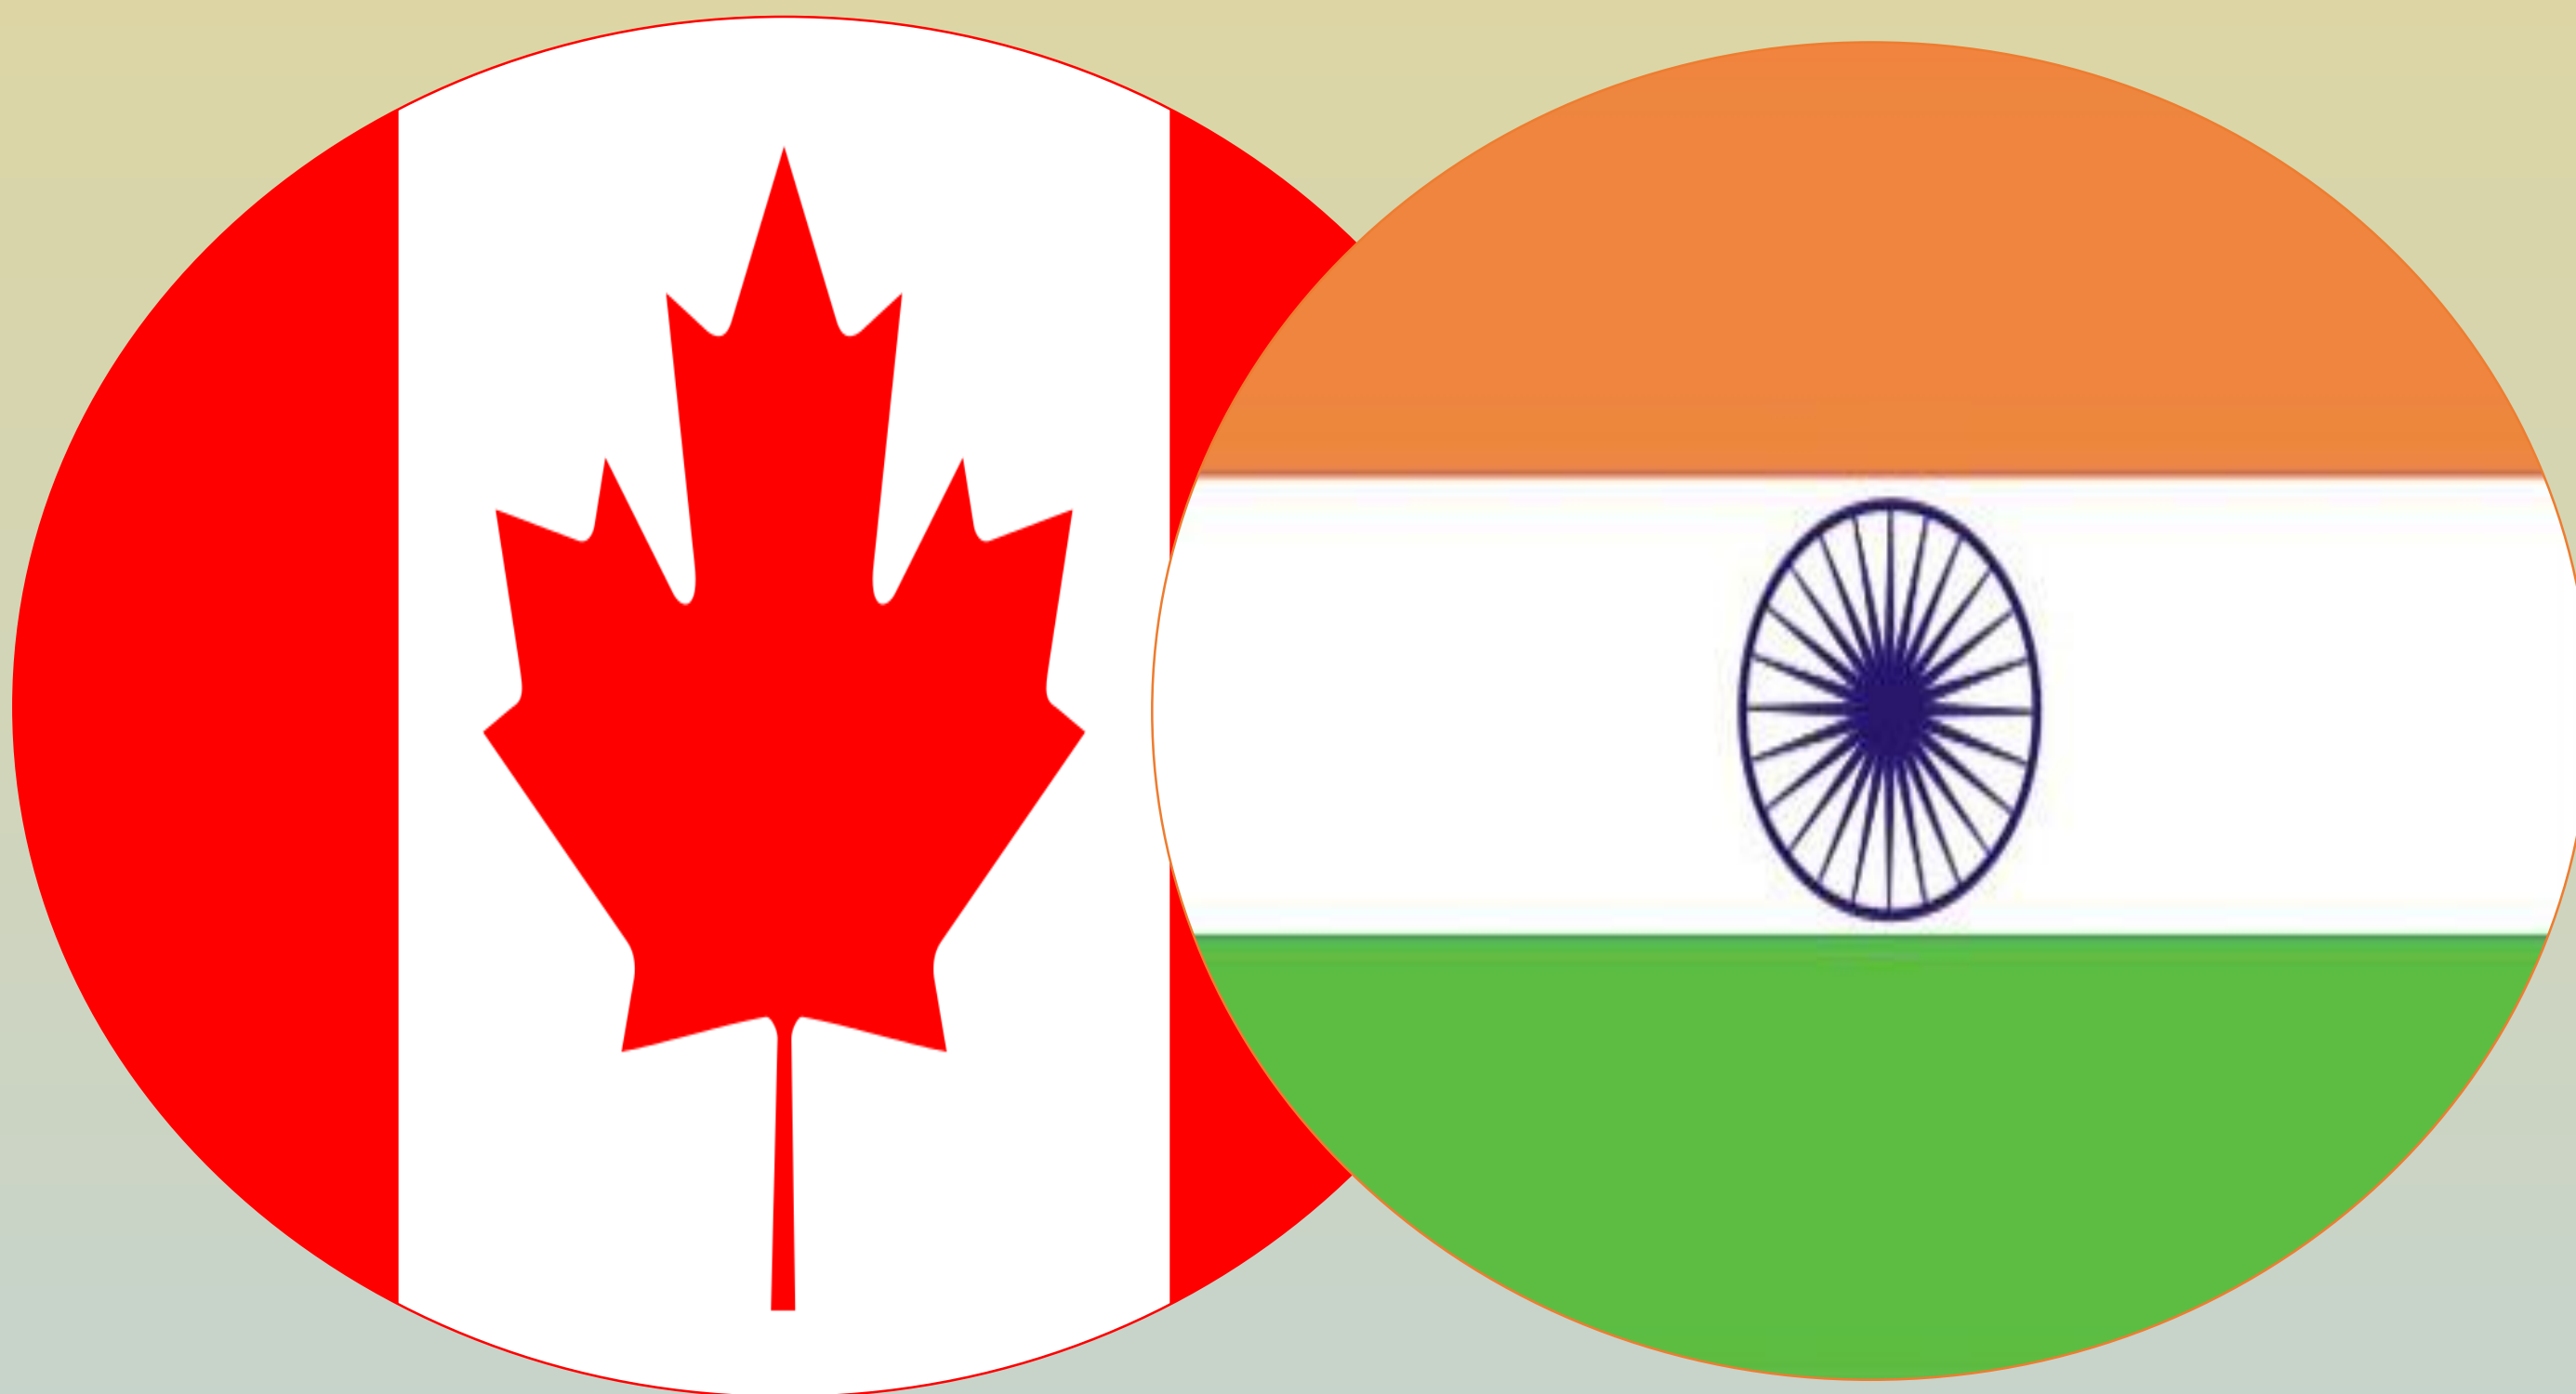

➤ Grading system of evaluation

❖ Percentage system of evaluation

➤ Lesser students per teacher

Use of technology for teaching & learning

❖ More students per teacher

➤ Experiential learning

Diverse student population

❖ Rote learning

➤ Emphasis on no plagiarism

❖ No concept of plagiarism

➤ Low power distance between teacher & student

❖ High power distance between teacher & student

By Meenakshiyogini Balachandran
TESL 2015
Thompson Rivers University
bobbins1211@gmail.com

References:

1. Flag of Canada. Retrieved from http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Flag_of_Canada
2. Indian Flag. Retrieved from <http://www.mapsofindia.com/maps/india/national-flag.htm>
3. Experiential Learning. Retrieved from http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Experiential_learning
4. Canada Education System. Retrieved from http://www.tceducation.com/can_edu_sys.htm