

THE STRANGEST DREAM

<sup>c</sup>
Last night I had the strangest dream
<sup>f</sup> <sup>c</sup>
I never had before.
<sup>g7</sup> <sup>c</sup> <sup>am</sup>
I dreamed the world had all agreed
<sup>g7</sup> <sup>c</sup>
To put an end to war.

<sup>f</sup> <sup>c</sup>
And I dreamed I saw a mighty room
<sup>g7</sup> <sup>c</sup>
And the room was filled with men.
<sup>f</sup> <sup>c</sup>
And the papers they were signing said
<sup>g7</sup> <sup>c</sup>
They'd never fight again.

<sup>c</sup>
And when the papers were all signed
<sup>f</sup> <sup>c</sup>
And a million copies made,
<sup>g7</sup> <sup>c</sup> <sup>am</sup>
They all joined hands and bowed their heads
<sup>g7</sup> <sup>c</sup>
And grateful prayers were prayed.

<sup>f</sup> <sup>c</sup>
And the people in the streets below
<sup>g7</sup> <sup>c</sup>
Were dancing round and round.
And guns and swords and uniforms
<sup>g7</sup> <sup>c</sup>
Were scattered on the ground.

<sup>c</sup>
Last night I had the strangest dream
<sup>f</sup> <sup>c</sup>
I never had before.
<sup>g7</sup> <sup>c</sup> <sup>am</sup>
I dreamed the world had all agreed
<sup>g7</sup> <sup>c</sup>
To put an end to war.
