Dear Bob:

The Youth Disarmament Tour is half-way across Canada now. (Information enclosed) Peter Zowski interviewed Stuart MacLean regarding the tour while they were in the Maritimes, and we were wondering if you are interested in doing an update, now that they are nearing the end of their tour.

They will arrive in Kamloops on the evening of the 15th of April, and would be able to speak to you on the morning of the 16th or 17th. We understand that they will be at the Vancouver Peace Walk, also.

To set up an interview, please call Lisa Millar 376-1550 or myself, 374-3269.

our for peace,

Armin Ferguson
