

THE KAMLOOPS-SHUSWAP PEACE COUNCIL PRESENTS

THE SECOND ANNUAL

SEMINAR ON PEACE AND DISARMAMENT

JANUARY 12, 1985

CARIBOO COLLEGE BOARDROOM

9:00 A.M.

WORKSHOPS:

ECONOMICS OF THE ARMS RACE

Emil Bjarnason, economist with the Trade Union Research Bureau, Vancouver, looks at the effect of the arms race on the economy.

TEACHING PEACE: ALTERNATIVES TO APATHY AND DESPAIR--A PSYCHOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVE

Al Mackinnon, psychology instructor at Cariboo College, directs this workshop which is aimed primarily at educators, but certainly is of interest to all. (One workshop only, 1:00 PM)

THE CHURCHES' RESPONSE TO THE ARMS RACE

Project Ploughshares and the Bahai Community join to present the perspective of the religious community.

THE MUSIC OF PEACE

Vancouver folk musician Tom Hawken once again brings us his wealth of knowledge of peace music old and new. Musicians are invited to bring their instruments, but anyone who is interested in peace music is invited to participate.
