The Canadian Peace Pledge is a campaign sponsored by hundreds of peace-related groups in Canada and facilitated by the Canadian Peace Alliance, representing 350 organizations from coast to coast.

Your participating organization is:

Do you want to help end the nuclear arms race?

Join the Canadian Peace Pledge Campaign

and help vote Canada out of the arms race.

Millions of Canadians feel threatened by the risk of nuclear war.

Millions of Canadians want the arms race to end.

But Canada continues to support the build up of nuclear weapons by:

- testing the cruise missile,
- giving support to Star Wars,
- allowing nuclear war-fighting ships and aircraft to use Canadian territory,
- being one of the world's leading weapons exporters,
- failing to take concrete actions to stop the race towards nuclear war.

By not being part of the solution, this country is part of the problem. Canadians in increasing numbers are demanding that this must change.

TURN CANADA INTO A WORLD LEADER FOR PEACE

You can make an important contribution towards making Canada a world leader for peace by joining the Canadian Peace Pledge:

— A pledge by voters to support only candidates who take concrete steps to help end the arms race.

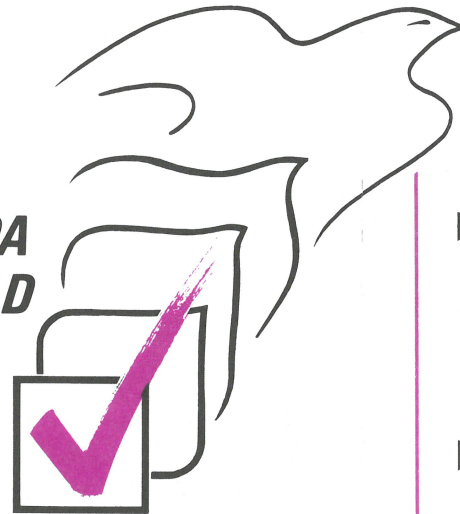

— A pledge by Canadians to make this country a voice for world peace.

How to participate:

1. Sign the pledge and send it in. Help convince politicians there is a "peace vote" to be won or lost in the next federal election.

2. Join the campaign. Participate in campaign events, make a financial contribution, ask your friends to join the campaign. Write and phone politicians—let them know you've taken the peace pledge. As a campaign participant you will receive regular updates on the peace positions of local candidates and federal parties.

3. Vote for Peace. On election day mark your ballot for candidates who pledge to work for an end to the nuclear arms race.

I pledge to vote only for candidates who will speak out against Canada's support for the arms race, and who will actively work to make Canada an international voice for peace. Candidates should work to:

- ▶ Stop all Canadian involvement in, and support for, Star Wars—support instead the peaceful use of space.
- ▶ Make Canada Nuclear Weapons Free by:
 - ending cruise missile tests
 - stopping nuclear armed ships from entering Canadian waters
 - ending low flight testing and training of nuclear war-fighting aircraft
 - ending production of nuclear weapon components.
- ▶ Convince the United States, the Soviet Union and all nuclear powers to end all nuclear weapons testing—support international arms control initiatives.
