College Opens First Student Art Display

The Cariboo College Department of Fine Art is opening its first diploma display to the general public on Tuesday, April 29th from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the college Boardroom.

Student work in the areas of drawing, painting, etching, lithography, ceramics and sculpture will be on view following adjudication on Monday. This constitutes the first display of work by college students who have finished the 2 year Fine Art Diploma course and it is an opportunity to view the level of work presently being done at the college.
