NATIONAL FILM BOARD SERIES UNDERWAY AT CARIBOO COLLEGE

A 10 part film and discussion series entitled Women in Canada is presently being held Thursday evenings at 7:30 in the College Boardroom.

The series, jointly sponsored by Canadian Studies, Continuing Education and the Women's Centre, is a group of films about Working Mothers produced by the National Film Board of Canada. There is a $2 fee for those who are not Cariboo College students and people are welcome to attend weekly or sporadically.

Films will not be shown Week 4, February 6, instead many people from the series will be attending a special entitled Menopause at the Health Unit.

For more information contact Barbara Roberts, instructor of Canadian Studies at Cariboo College at 374-0123, local 265.
