

CARIBOO COLLEGE FREE PUBLIC LECTURE ON WOMEN IN B.C. HISTORY

The second free public lecture in the series "New Directions in B.C. History" will be given by Gillian Marie on October 14, 7:00 p.m., Student Lounge, Cariboo College.

To date, the main chronicles of B.C. history have tended to ignore the role of women in our society. As a consequence of this neglect various myths have been created and these have handicapped the progress of the women's movement. Modern attitudes have been determined by the past.

In a lecture entitled "Writing Women into B.C. History" Gillian Marie will explore this important but neglected area of our province's history.

The other guest lecturers in this series are as follows:

OCTOBER 21 - Dr. Robert McDonald, University of British Columbia:

"Labour Radicalism in a Company Province". (Board Room, Main Building) 7:00 p.m.

OCTOBER 28 - Dr. W. Peter Ward, U.B.C.: "Love in a Cold Climate

- Romance, Courtship and Marriage in 19th Century Canada. (Student Lounge) 7:00 p.m.

NOVEMBER 4 - Dr. Patricia Roy, University of Victoria: "The Unwelcome Host and His Chinese and Japanese Residents". (Board Room, Main Building) 7:00 p.m.
