NEWS RELEASE

(for immediate release)

Cariboo College Sociologist N. Morrison has announced that Paul Snead of the Native Studies Program at Northwest College in Terrace will be speaking on Native Studies programs at Cariboo College in Science Room 223, at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, March 28th.

"Given the vast population of Native people in the College region," Morrison said, "we may encourage the start of a similar program here."

Anyone interested in Native Studies is invited to attend and hear Snead's presentation on the subject.
