

17 January 1980

NEWS RELEASE

(for immediate release)

WOMEN'S ACCESS CENTRE OPEN HOUSE

Cariboo College's newly opened Women's Access Centre will be hosting an Open House for anyone in the community interested in finding out what the community can do for them.

The coordinator for the Centre, Lynn Thompson, has been busy over the past few months developing a number of workshops and short courses for women and the Women's Access Centre Open House on Wednesday, January 23rd from 12:00 noon to 9:00 p.m. marks the formal introduction of this College service to Kamloops' women.

The Women's Access Centre is a new community service offered by Cariboo College to assist women with information and support when facing changes in the course of their life either with education or occupation.

For further information please phone the Women's Access Centre at Cariboo College, 374-0123.

C.W.F. Bishop
College Affairs Manager