NEWS RELEASE #1986/6.2

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 4, 1986

President Charles Brewster today announced the appointment of Dr. Paul D. Egan as the new Director of the Sciences & Health Sciences Division at Cariboo College, effective June 3, 1986.

A native of Brantford, Ontario, Egan received a B.Sc. degree in Biology from McMaster University and, in 1973, his Doctorate in Veterinary Medicine from the Ontario Veterinary College at Guelph. Egan practiced veterinary medicine for 8 1/2 years prior to moving to Kamloops in 1981 to set up the Animal Health Technology program at Cariboo College. Egan was coordinator of the Animal Health Technology program for 2 years and since 1984 has been chairperson of Agriculture Related Programs.

Egan succeeds Dr. David Cane as Cariboo's Director of Sciences and Health Sciences. Cane was recently appointed Vice-President, Administrative Services.
