NEWS RELEASE #1987/4.5

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 29, 1987

Cariboo College and the Interior Salish Education Council will offer a one-day workshop on "Issues in Native Post-Secondary Education" in the Cariboo College Boardroom on Thursday, May 7th.

The workshop, which begins at 9:00am will provide participants with an opportunity to share information and concerns on a number of issues related to post-secondary education for native people.

The keynote speaker will be Dr. Oliver Brass, President of the Saskatchewan Indian Federated College of the University of Regina, and the topic of his address will be "Experiences in Establishing the Federated Native College".

It is anticipated that in excess of 100 native people from throughout the College region, federal departments and native organizations in British Columbia will attend this workshop. There is no registration fee and everyone is welcome to attend.
