NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Cariboo College English Department announces a new Fall Semester Course in Drama.

The second-year English course (Engl. 219) will run on Tuesdays, 7 - 10 p.m. in Room # S122.

The course examines the origins and development of Western drama with particular emphasis on the various dramatic modes such as comedy and tragedy. The course begins with Greek drama in the 5th century B.C. and continues to the more modern forms such as Theatre of the Absurd.

The pre-requisite for entry is C standing (or better) in first-year University Transfer English, or permission of the instructor.

For further information concerning University transferability, please contact the instructor, Dr. David Edwards, at 374-0123, extension # 218.
