

The University College of the Cariboo

Faculty Association Human Rights Committee

Current Faculty Members:

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| • Derek Cook | Political Studies |
| • Surinder Dhanjal | Computing Science |
| • Marilyn James | Coordinator for First Nations Students |
| • Darrell Laird | English |
| • Rory Mahood | Human Service Worker Program |
| • Nan McBlane | Sociology
Committee Chair
(371-5562) |
| • Wally Norton | Human Service Worker Program |

(March 1995)

UCC FACULTY ASSOCIATION HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE

900 McGill Road, Box 3010
Kamloops, BC V2C 5N3
CANADA

The University College of the Cariboo

Faculty Association Human Rights Committee

MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of this committee is to promote the protection and enhancement of human rights among all members of our University College campus, in our local community and at the provincial, national and international levels.

Our mandate includes:

- fostering higher standards of human rights awareness and protection levels
- education ourselves and others on human rights issues
- serving as a facilitator and forum for information exchange
- liaising with other human rights organizations for collaborative advocacy of human rights

Some of our activities over the past two years:

- Formulated and lobbied for the Academic Freedom Clause in the Faculty Association Collective Agreement.
- Sponsored the showing and discussion of films by Noam Chomsky, including "Manufacturing Consent."
- Sponsored "Anti Gulf War" lecture by Mordecai Briemberg (editor of the book: "It Was, It Was Not") in February 1993.
- Participated in the Anti-racist Conference at UCC in March 1994.

... and many more