

FIRST NATIONS AWARENESS WEEK

FEBRUARY 6 - 10, 1995

MONDAY:
12 NOON A126

Video: "Blockade" – an objective portrayal of British Columbia's First Nations to impact Natural Resource Harvest & Management

TUESDAY:
12 NOON A126

A poetry reading & book signing with Gary Gottfriedson, First Nations Poet.
Author of "In Honour of our Grandmother's"

WEDNESDAY:
9:00 A.M. TO 5:00 P.M. CAC ROTUNDA
Display & Silent Auction of First Nations Art

12 NOON A126
Elder's Luncheon

THURSDAY:
9:00 A.M. TO 5:00 P.M. CAC ROTUNDA
Display and Silent Auction of First Nations Art

12 NOON A126
Video: "Incident at Oglalla" – depicts events around the shooting death of two FBI agents and the subsequent investigation.

7:00 P.M. CLOCK TOWER THEATRE
An evening of First Nations entertainment and Performing Arts.

- Scwepmc Story Teller
- Little Shield, Kamloops Native drumming group
- Nlaka'pamux & Scwepmc exhibition dancers
- Métis champion fiddler
- Rod Bandera & Henry Small play contemporary First Nations music

FRIDAY:
10:00 A.M. TO 12:00 NOON A126

"Future Vision: Reclaiming the Past" – a First Nations discussion about First Nations Health Education & Welfare with Lisa Allgaier, B.S.W., Regional Coordinator - Aboriginal Initiatives, BC Ministry of Aboriginal Affairs.
(UCC graduate, former UCC Program Coordinator, Instructor, & Chair of the First Nations Advisory Committee)

12 NOON A126

Videos:
"Woman in the Shadows" – a Métis woman's self exploration and quest for genealogy and history.
"Foster Child" – Gill Cardinal's self discovery of Métis/Cree heritage and a heart-rending story of a First Nations experience and survival of social services systems.

For more information call:
Anita McPhee - 374-6382
Marilyn James - 828-5246

Thanks to:
UCC
UCC Student Society
Spirit Dancer
Char-lees

Scwepmc Museum
Lloyd Bennett
Albert Howard
Marilyn James
others